

Research Synthesis

Topic: Mr. Jiang

Checksum Confirmed
14 seconds ago

Reliability 58%

- Born on Earth, reputedly in or near Shanghai, China.
- A successful black market arms dealer, smuggler, and pirate for many years before The Fall, Jiang escaped to Luna weeks before hostilities started.
- There is no true ego ID for Mr. Jiang, as he successfully wiped out his data trail as The Fall was in progress.

Reliability 51%

- Shortly after The Fall he set up a base of operations known within the organization as Cake – it is wholly self-sufficient and lies in the Kuiper Belt.
- Mr. Jiang's operation is relatively small, numbering less than 50 individuals.
- He is a system-class Go player, and sometimes appears in disguised morphs for in-morph tournaments.
- Mr. Jiang thinks like a businessman and sees his work as noble.

Reliability 35%

- Mr. Jiang is paid to distribute heavy weapons far and wide by arms designers in the Jovian Republic, against Jovian export laws.

Reliability 20%

- He employs at least three experienced former Jovian special operations veterans as bodyguards, and provides them state-of-the-art Fury morphs.
- Mr. Jiang enjoys switching genders and has over a dozen morphs, female and male, at his base of operations. His most frequently used morph may be this Exalt:

Image metadata: Haircut by Josh Pesavento – <http://www.flickr.com/photos/pezz/3075429680/in/photostream/> – CC-BY-2.0 license